Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened:

- Section 1. Section 8-268 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2015):
- 3 (a) Whenever a program or project undertaken by a state agency or 4 under the supervision of a state agency will result in the displacement
- of any person on or after July 6, 1971, the head of such state agency
- 6 shall make payment to any displaced person, upon proper application
- as approved by such agency head, for (1) actual reasonable expenses in
- 8 moving himself, his family, business, farm operation or other personal
- 9 property, (2) actual direct losses of tangible personal property as a
- 10 result of moving or discontinuing a business or farm operation, but not
- 11 to exceed an amount equal to the reasonable expenses that would have
- 12 been required to relocate such property, as determined by the state
- 13 agency, and (3) actual reasonable expenses in searching for a
- 14 replacement business or farm. [, provided,]
- 15 (b) Except as provided in subsection (c) of this section, whenever any tenant in any dwelling unit is displaced as the result of the enforcement of any code to which this section is applicable by any town, city or borough or agency thereof, the landlord of such dwelling unit shall be liable for any payments made by such town, city or borough pursuant to this section or by the state pursuant to subsection (b) of section 8-280, and the town, city or borough or the state may place a lien on any real property owned by such landlord to secure repayment to the town, city or borough or the state of such payments, which lien shall have the same priority as and shall be filed, enforced and discharged in the same manner as a lien for municipal taxes under chapter 205.

(c) The landlord of any dwelling unit shall not be liable pursuant to subsection (b) of this section for any payments made by such town, city or borough if any tenant in any such dwelling unit is displaced as a result of: (1) The tenant, guest or invitee of the tenant having caused or substantially contributed to the condition giving rise to the code violation, or (2) any negligent act of the tenant, guest or invitee of the tenant.

- [(b)] (d) Any displaced person eligible for payments under subsection (a) of this section who is displaced from a dwelling and who elects to accept the payments authorized by this subsection in lieu of the payments authorized by subsection (a) of this section may receive a moving expense allowance, determined according to a schedule established by the state agency, not to exceed three hundred dollars and a dislocation allowance of two hundred dollars.
- [(c)] (e) Any displaced person eligible for payments under subsection (a) of this section who is displaced from the person's place of business or from the person's farm operation and who elects to accept the payment authorized by this subsection in lieu of the payment authorized by subsection (a) of this section, may receive a fixed payment in an amount equal to the average annual net earnings of the business or farm operation, except that such payment shall not be less than two thousand five hundred dollars nor more than ten thousand dollars. In the case of a business no payment shall be made under this subsection unless the state agency is satisfied that the business (1) cannot be relocated without a substantial loss of its existing patronage, and (2) is not a part of a commercial enterprise having at least one other establishment not being acquired by the state, which is engaged in the same or similar business. For purposes of this subsection, "average annual net earnings" means one half of any net earnings of the business or farm operation, before federal, state and local income taxes, during the two taxable years immediately preceding the taxable year in which such business or farm operation moves from the real property acquired for such project, or during such other period as such agency determines to be more equitable for establishing such earnings, and includes any compensation paid by the business or farm operation to the owner, the owner's spouse or the owner's dependents during such period.

[(d)] (f) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, in the case of displacement of a person on or after October 1, 2007, because of acquisition of real property by a redevelopment agency pursuant to section 8-128, a development agency pursuant to section 8-193, or an implementing agency pursuant to section 32-224, pursuant to a redevelopment plan approved under chapter 130 or a development plan approved under chapter 132 or 588l, the agency shall make relocation payments as provided under the federal Uniform Relocation Assistance and Real Property Acquisition Policies Act of 1970, 42 USC 4601 et seq. and any subsequent amendments thereto and regulations promulgated thereunder if payments under said act and regulations would be greater than payments under this section and sections 8-269 and 8-270, as amended by this act.

- Sec. 2. Section 8-270 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2015):
- 79 (a) In addition to amounts otherwise authorized by this chapter, a state agency shall make a payment to or for any displaced person displaced from any dwelling not eligible to receive a payment under section 8-269, which dwelling was actually and lawfully occupied by such displaced person for not less than ninety days prior to the initiation of negotiations for acquisition of such dwelling under the program or project which results in such person being displaced. Such payment shall be either (1) the amount necessary to enable such displaced person to lease or rent for a period not to exceed four years, a decent, safe, and sanitary dwelling of standards adequate to accommodate such person in areas not generally less desirable with regard to public utilities and public and commercial facilities, and reasonably accessible to such displaced person's place of employment, but not to exceed four thousand dollars, or (2) the amount necessary to enable such displaced person to make a down payment, including reasonable expenses incurred by such displaced person for evidence of title, recording fees, and other closing costs incident to the purchase of a decent, safe, and sanitary dwelling of standards adequate to accommodate such person in areas not generally less desirable with regard to public utilities and public and commercial facilities, but not to exceed four thousand dollars, except that if such amount exceeds two thousand dollars, such person must equally match any such amount in excess of two thousand dollars in making the downpayment.
